Robert Kennedy III is the president of Kennetik Kommunications, a minority owned training firm. He has been called a dynamic leadership communicator. But, at his core, he is a teacher and trainer. When he speaks, he challenges employees, executives and business leaders alike to take accountability for their current setting and then to create a bigger future for themselves.

His energetic presentations are infused with humor and keep his audiences engaged as he invites them to SPEAK UP, SPEAK OUT & LEAD WELL!

Robert pulls from almost 2 decades as an educator, radio and media announcer, entrepreneur and workshop facilitator to tap into his audiences’ needs. His clients include government orgs like Social Security Administration and US Coast Guard; large non-profits like AARP and NeighborWorks America; companies like Comscore, Barnes & Noble, Panda Restaurant Group and numerous associations.

He has a mission to equip 1 million leaders with the ability to IMPACT, INFLUENCE and INSPIRE through communication and storytelling.

Robert blew the roof off our leadership conference. He set the tone of enthusiasm that lasted the entire day. He mingled with our leaders and had great reviews from attendees. Highly recommended!

"Wow! Robert’s session was so good. It was fun, energetic, LOUD! We don’t get to be ourselves like this that often. Some of our leaders who are normally reserved...they were all in. No question. We are definitely bringing him back."
Tayna Frett, NeighborWorks America

“We invited Robert to be our Keynote Presenter for our Career Enrichment Workshop. All we can say is…. WOW! The participants are still emailing us about how phenomenal Robert’s presentation was. Thanks a million RK3!”
